The Commissioners convened at 10:00 a.m. to discuss, review and consider the use of Snow Groomer Funds to pay Groomer Operators as Independent Contractors. Also in attendance was Chris Pfahl and via conference call was Matt Beehner. Items discussed included the following:

- Chris Pfahl, Shoshone County Groomer Board Chairman, met with the Snow Advisory Board and they would like to look into contracting an employee to take on grooming trails and managing volunteers instead of relying on volunteers only.
- Volunteers are not always available to groom and are not always reliable when they are scheduled.
- Will possibly need two (2) positions filled, one at each end of the Silver Valley.
- Chris has someone interested in filling a position, if they move forward with contracting an employee.
- Chris gave a summary of the budget and the Snow Groomer account has over $61,000.00 in it currently.
- Chris will get some quotes on Workers Compensation and Liability Insurance; the Board will call ICRMP to find out what they would require contracting an employee.
- A meeting was scheduled for Tuesday, December 29, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. for further discussion and review.

Thereafter, the meeting adjourned.
